Figure 2.6: Disparity between countries is much greater in income than in the VIC Index.

The chart shows two separate distribution of countries. The upper curve shows their ranking according to VIC Index and the lower curve represents their ranking according to GNI per capita. The two curves reveal that disparity among countries is much greater in income than in VIC Index. There is no predictable association between the level of per capita income in a country and childhood violence.

Source: Shiva Kumar and others 2017 for Know Violence in Childhood 2017.