Improved communication between family members
- Less conflict in the home
- Adults serve as positive role models for children

Reduced alcohol consumption
- Men enabled to spend more time with the family than with peers
- Caregivers better able to cope with stressful situations

Involved fathers
- Transformed traditional gender norms
- Empowered women, enjoying greater freedoms

Source: Know Violence in Childhood 2017